Supplying Independent Medical Evidence

We've been supplying independent medical evidence to instructing parties just like you since 2003. Whether you need a medical report, rehabilitation, pagination, diagnostics and treatment services or occupational health assessments – we're here and ready to help.

Medical Evidence from a GP or Consultant

If you're looking for medical evidence from a GP or A&E Consultant to an Obstetrician or Plastic Surgeon – we'll sort it on any case type via our extensive medical expert panel, with clinic locations across the country.

We're The Right Partner to Support You

The entire UKIM team has you and your experience with us at front of mind. We'll go the extra mile when you need us to, to ensure that your requirements and those of your clients are fulfilled. We want to be the right partner to support you, your business and your clients.

Did you know?

Did you know that we also help employers to improve their workforce's occupational health and wellbeing via Occupational Health solutions that are entirely designed to support individual businesses and their employees?
